Five-Day Train-the-Trainer Faculty Development Programme (FDP) on "Empowering Educators with Generative AI: Transforming Teaching, Learning, and Research"

SVKM's NMIMS, Mukesh Patel School of Technology Management and Engineering (MPSTME), Shirpur Campus, hosted a transformative Train-the-Trainer Faculty Development Programme (FDP) titled "Empowering Educators with Generative AI: Transforming Teaching, Learning, and Research" from December 16-20, 2024, with over 50 educators from various NMIMS campuses participating. The programme explored Generative AI's potential in education through sessions on GenAI evolution, prompt engineering, ethical considerations, NMIMS-specific Generative AI Guidelines and Policy, and hands-on workshops on tools for applications involving building custom chatbots and many more featuring 36 Generative AI tools. Industry experts discussed their specific use-cases and ethical aspects of their applications. Dr. Ramesh Bhat, Hon. Vice Chancellor of NMIMS, in his valedictory address emphasized on judiciously integrating GenAI into education. Coordinated by Dr. Praveen Kumar Loharkar and supported by NMIMS leadership, the FDP also provided an opportunity for collaboration and innovation among participating faculty members from diverse domains and campuses.
